

Boston, Sept. 24, 1858.

Dear friend Webb -

I send you herewith a copy of the Rutland Convention Proceedings, as you requested - booksellers' price - 35 cts.
And I have added for your gratuitous distribution some copies of Bleby's West India Address, - also of C. K. Whipple's Religious & Theological Experience, which some few of us have had printed for our own use & distribution. - In all Boston I can find but one copy of Walt. Whitman's Leaves of Grass; it is a second hand copy, much the worse for wear, and they ask for it a dollar & a half, double its value. I therefore do not send it, and I do not think you will be much the loser if you never see a copy. Still, judgments differ, and should I see a copy at a reasonable price, I will send it to you. - No time to add more now, & I must at once put up the parcel for the ship. Truly Yr friend Saml May Jr
